

Adventum Tech

SlabControl

SlabControl

SlabControl is a hardware sensor solution that monitors structure's bending deflection. SlabControl sensor system tasks are:

- to record bending deformation of the structure
- to record fresh concrete temperature and perform maturity calculation
- to record vibrations
- to record inclination
- to input recorded data for further analytics
- to inform project stakeholders about structure's in-situ deformation

